Explore the wonders of Chaguaramas

The Chaguaramas Peninsula at Trinidad's north-western tip is 20 minutes from Port-of-Spain's Cruise Ship Complex. The area is known for its beach-front boardwalk, scenic bays, sheltered harbours, lush greenery, recreational & sporting facilities and nature trails. It boasts attractions for the water sport enthusiast as well as the adventurer and eco-tourist.

Hikers, bikers, explorers, bird watchers and those with a love for nature come to explore the area's rich flora and fauna. They escape the noise of the city to hear the rich sounds of the Red Howler and Capuchin monkeys and the songs of the Kiskadees while taking in the breath-taking views of the green valleys and the rolling blue waves of the Gulf of Paria.

Edith Falls

Nestled against the eastern side of Morne Catherine overlooking the Chaguaramas Golf Course, this awesome 180 metre waterfall is a sight to behold!

The falls are accessed through an old Tonka Bean plantation that comes alive with its exotic rain forest, bamboo clusters and colourful flora including Red Heliconia, Rubber trees and Fishtail palms. As you stroll along this fascinating trail, you may also be fortunate enough to hear the Red Howler and Capuchin monkeys in their natural habitat. Yours to explore only in Chaguaramas!
